

The YFi Committee and Professional 100 Club have joined forces and would like to invite you to the below event:

Corporate Terrorism

with guest speakers Luke Manning and Lt Col Paul Kearney of the Royal Marines.

Thursday 25th February 2010 – 6.30pm – 9.30pm
Chilli White, Crown Street, Leeds

We are witnessing big businesses all over the world suffering sustained attacks from a new breed of smaller, more agile competitors whose actions and operations are evocative of terrorist groups. These are the ones that prospered during the global recession and continue to set the tempo. They are the progressive, far-sighted “new breed” that are not battling with survival but instead preparing for the upturn.

After reviewing how terrorists act for some time now, our guest speakers Luke Manning and Lt Col Paul Kearney of the Royal Marines present to you their views.

A light buffet and drinks will be served on arrival followed by our speakers at 7pm. A networking reception will follow from 8 – 9.30pm.

Cost: £10pp (inclusive of VAT)

If you would like to attend, please reply to Kirsty.oliver@financialleeds.com with your name, company and contact number and I will confirm your place by return of email. Places are limited and therefore will be served on a first come, first served basis.

If you do book a place and learn that nearer the time you cannot attend, please let me know as soon as possible. Failure to do this will result in full payment being requested. Please see attached cancellation policy.
