

The Banking Evolution - and there is more to come

Guest Lecture at the Rose Bowl by Angela Knight, Chief Executive, British Bankers' Association

Monday 15 March 2010

Overview

At a time of economic uncertainty and a global financial crisis, the banking sector has faced unprecedented levels of scrutiny and public comment. This lecture is an opportunity to listen to and engage with one of the most prominent members of the UK's banking sector.

The event will be of interest not only to those working in banking, financial services and other areas of the business world, but also to anyone who wants to learn more about the current and future developments that will impact upon us all.

About Angela Knight

Angela Knight is currently the Chief Executive of the British Bankers' Association. She is also a non-executive director on the boards of IFSL, Brewin Dolphin plc and the Financial Services Skills Council.

Venue

Lecture Theatre A, the Rose Bowl, Leeds Metropolitan University, Portland Crescent, Leeds, LS1 3HB.

The award-winning Rose Bowl is the home of Leeds Business School – at the heart of business in Yorkshire.

To book a place

The guest lecture begins at 18.00 and will last for approximately one hour, including an opportunity to ask questions. Refreshments will be available from 17.30.

This is a free event, but places will be available on a 'first come, first served' basis.

For more information and to book a place, please email
v.crampton@leedsmet.ac.uk

